STATE INTERSCHOLASTIC TRACKSTERS WILL MEET IN ANNUAL TOURNAMENT

New Records in Javelin, Shot Put and Half-Mile Run Looked For; West High Panthers Favorites; Ogden Division Represented By Strong Athletes; Keen Interest in Yearly Tilt

Utah interscholastic track and field athletes will meet in the annual state championship tournament at Cummings field, Salt Lake, Thursday and Friday. Several marks are tottering and may be broken when the high schools of the state compete for honors.

Although the Ogden division athletes have not been figured as serious contenders they are due to come in for a good share.

Each of the schools represented in this division will be heard from. The Ogden high school boasts one of the most likely men in the state in Bill Cox, weight man.

For Weber Normal, Anderson, Hickman and Halverson are expected to grab honors. Anderson was clocked at 10.1 in the hundred and 22.4 in the furlong. He is slated to capture at least one of these events. Hickman should give the opposition a hard pull in the quarter, while Halverson is a sure bet in the high jump.

SMITH IS STAR. Smith of Ogden looms as one of the best in the state in the low hurdles. He performed brilliantly in this event at Brigham last week.

Cox has shattered the state record three times in the shotput and hopes to make it final at the state meet.

Watkins, the towheaded athlete of the West Elder high, appears to be one of the best broad jumpers in the state. He leaped 21 feet 8 inches in the Ogden division meet and is expected to even better this mark in the state meet.

Watkins is also a high jumper and a pole vaulter. He should capture at least eight points for the West Elderites.

Burt in the half mile run is another strong man from the Brigham fair. He ran a beautiful race in the 880 last week and should give a good account of himself, although he will face some tough opposition in Kump of East High and Hogan of West High.

ROBBINS IN THE DISTANCE RUNS AND PAGES IN THE WEIGHTS. Robbins in the distance runs and pages in the weights are two of the bright lights at the Davis high.

Box Elder will enter seven men in the finals and their relay team, which has been awarded first place, owing to the disqualification of the Ogden high relay team.

The individuals of the Box Elder team are: Foxley, 440 yard dash and discus; Burt, half mile; Neilson, mile run; Haskel, low hurdles; Watkins, high jump; broad jump and pole vault; Stevens, broad jump and pole vault.

The Weber Normal college will be represented in the finals by Anderson, 100 and 220 yard dashes; Burton, 100 and 220 yard dashes; Badger, 100 and 220 yard dashes; Hickman, quarter mile run; Halverson, pole vault and high jump; Hinckley, high jump; and Jones, javelin and shotput.

OGDEN STRONG. Ogden high, Zinn, sprinter; Brady, 880 yard run; Garrison, mile run; Smith, low hurdles; Miller, high jump; Cox, discus, shot and javelin; Lyons, discus.

Davis high, M. Layton, 440 yard run; Robbins, 880 and mile runs; Wright, hurdles, and Page, javelin.

Trials for some of the events will be staged at Cummings field Thursday afternoon commencing at 1 o'clock sharp. Finals will be staged at the same field Friday commencing at 2:30 o'clock sharp.

The West High Panthers on paper appear to be the favorites, but as in past years the unexpected has many times happened and 1932 may be no exception.

GUNNERS PLAY PROVO FRIDAY

Smithfield Skipper Writes That His Charges Are Ready for Ogden

The baseball contest between the Ogden Gunners and the Provo club of the Central Utah league scheduled for today at Provo has been postponed until Friday. Manager Earl Peterson of the local club announced.

Members of the Gunner crew are working out daily in preparation for the opening league game of the season one week from today.

Bill Melvor, skipper for the Smithfield warriors, writes that his men are coming to Ogden to grab the long end of the score in the first contest. Mac states that his charges are fast rounding into shape.

Joe Kane, the star receiver of the Smithfield club, arrived from Kansas City Tuesday and immediately got into action.

McVoy is undecided as to who will start on the firing line but opines that he will take up the duties himself if Old Sol is out in force. Melvor is a hot weather pitcher.

Directors of the Ogden club of the Northern Utah league will meet Thursday evening at the Weber club to arrange for the opening on May 17.

TEAMS READY FOR BIG TILTS
Pairings for the opening play in the boys' elimination baseball tournament being conducted by The Standard-Examiner will be made Thursday afternoon and play will start Saturday morning and afternoon. Managers of all of the teams entered in the race are requested to be in attendance at a meeting of representatives of all clubs at the editorial offices of The Standard-Examiner at 4 o'clock Thursday at which time the rules for the tournament will be explained.

It is expected that at least 20 games will be played Saturday on the various parks of the city. Due to the fact that the games will be of seven inning duration at least four games can be played on each diamond of the city Saturday.

With the entries for the event closed the many teams entered in the meet are making all efforts to get into condition for the grind.

With the losing teams automatically dropped from the tournament the competition is expected to be at fever pitch.

Scoutmasters of many of the troops of the city have offered to lend their support by unmying some of the games.

If your team is entered in the series for the Fred M. Nye cup and the dozen college baseballs be on deck Thursday to receive your instructions.
